Scale point: 39-42 & 43-45 | Based in Kingston | Permanent | Part-Time (21.6 hours per week)

About the service

The Emotional Health Service (EHS) is a dynamic team of Clinical and Counselling Psychologists, CBT Therapists, Systemic Psychotherapists and Creative Therapists. We have staff working in specialist posts in Permanency, Safeguarding, Youth Resilience and Schools. We also have cluster teams at Richmond and Kingston. We have a strong sense of team and work together to support children and young people's emotional wellbeing.

About the Role:

As a Clinical Specialist/Systemic Psychotherapist in the EHS Permanency Service you will be passionate about improving the mental health of children and young people who are in Care or Leaving Care and putting them at the centre of all you do. You will provide consultations and reflective space to the social care teams, provide high quality evidenced based interventions, be part of an established team and be afforded many different opportunities to use your skills. We welcome creative and innovative ways to deliver services. In addition to individual supervision and line management, you will have access to many exciting development opportunities. You will also be part of a Team of 8
